

BRIEF LOCALS.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1898.

Winter has started in earnest.

H. F. Ashurst of Williams was in the city Tuesday.

Max Salzman of Williams was in town Thursday.

The old-fashioned grip is wandering around among the people, helping them to be miserable.

Supervisor Phelan of Williams has been a business visitor to Flagstaff the past few days.

Mrs. F. W. Sisson and her two children left for the east yesterday to spend some time with relatives.

Marl Beal and family, Mrs. J. W. Francis and children and Mrs. Bayless and child left for Phoenix in wagons Tuesday.

A mothers' meeting will be held at the house of Mrs. Coalter, Tuesday, Dec. 13, at 4 p. m. M. E. Kendrick, sec. W. C. T. U.

The weather department has kindly allowed us to dip our boots in a blonde downfall of congealed acqua pura. Otherwise it has snowed.

Monday next is the day every citizen who has the interest of Flagstaff at heart should turn out and vote for the additional bond issue.

The heavy snow of Thursday and Friday retarded the completion of the waterworks. The reservoir was finished Thursday night.

J. W. Weatherford received a telegram Saturday from Perry Bros., druggists at Stevensonville, Tex., announcing the sad intelligence that Mrs. Perry had died very suddenly. She was the sister of J. W. and Joe Weatherford, and was an estimable lady, much beloved by all who knew her.

If you want any pipes or piping under or around your houses to carry anything that can be pumped or tamped through them call and see Sykes Bros. 46tf

Oswald Rueckert has accepted a position as night clerk at the New Bank hotel. Mr. Rueckert has been with Mr. Tolfree at Mojave and other places for the past four years.

Last Sunday Officers Woody, Black and Fisher made another raid on a hop joint and arrested five of the Chinese frequenters. They will have a hearing before Judge Milligan today.

W. P. Hermann, forest supervisor of the Grand Canyon reserve, left yesterday for San Francisco on a special mission, and will go from there to his home in Oregon to spend a month.

Colonel A. O. Brodie passed through here Monday on his way to Chicago to buy a twenty-stamp mill, which will be erected at the Crown Point mine in Yavapai county. He expects to be absent about two weeks.

Hon. J. C. Martin, receiver of the land office at Prescott, and the hearty, happy editor of the Journal-Miner, the only hyphenated publication in the territory, was a visitor in Flagstaff Sunday, accompanied by his wife.

H. P. Ewing of Kingman was registered at the New Bank hotel last week. He states the Temple Bar Placer company, eighty miles north of Kingman, owns 1,000 acres. The gravel is all the way from 50 to 300 feet deep. The company has a large pumping plant in operation. A month's run yielded $60,000. A 40-stamp mill is running at White Hills, fifty miles north of Kingman, and producing considerable silver bullion. Chloride, twenty miles north of Kingman, is working 300 men. A
